Dear Ms. Budhia,

On behalf of my commanding officer and the entire team, I wish to express my gratitude for providing us with such an innovative and economical item which is surely helping us fight the present COVID-19 situation in an effective manner.

This innovation has ensured added safety to our men who come to work on a regular basis in large scale with our services being considered of essential nature. That said, we shall definitely like to promote your services by word of mouth to all our allied unit/services.

Our best wishes to you and your team for rendering excellent services in these challenging times
